

Jolly's Knoware In Time

My own self authority surpasses all that we know as authority in this world.

I live a life of contribution rather than one of servitude.

My outer world changes as I change inside and reconnect with my whole self.
I acknowledge that the balance point is constantly changing and I stay aware of this.

I am aware that ideology is not reality. However, I keep my vision of where I am going.

I am aware that the matrix system was imposed in this reality. I am also aware that I am within it and I must keep a balanced respect for it while expecting respect from it.

I never resent the matrix system, I keep a healthy relationship with it.
I continue using wisdom and keep it within all equations and considerations.

I use the Triple A of Life when communicating with the matrix and its creator.

Programs of control and limitation along with emotional wounding caused primarily by these programs are what is keeping humanity from being who we really are. When we become aware of this truth, we heal and return to inflowment here on earth.

Peace is an automatic by-product of this knowledge and awareness.
This leads us to acknowledge Earth Mother's distorted ego and to let her go.

When dealing with the matrix and its constant imposition on me and all of humanity, my response is to say thank you, but no thank you. I do not fight, I simply say "No".

I all ways use respect and communication when interacting with the matrix system.

I go into the amazing space of grace which leads me into my power which is impregnable. I can self protect, all attacks I deflect - I say NO.

Any beings that choose to attack, I deflect and I tell them to exit this reality.

My brain is never involved in any of the above, I go to my inner, higher Big self for this.

OK, so yes, we did (agreed at a soul level) incarnate into another's creation [The Matrix] and we must respect that, without any resentment for it. However, in the drama of this reality, we did not agree to the imposition of the programs of control and limitation. In more recent times, additional systems of control have been created, primarily a clever system which was created to enslave us completely to this matrix. Our true status of living being on the land was taken from us by sly manipulation and converted into one of bonded surety which allows the Catholic Church/Vatican to own our physical body. Choosing to correct our status will enable us to take back our inherent inner power, and physical freedom. We live by natural lore and do no harm. I tell the system to not harm me, and I do not harm it. We continue a healthy, respectful relationship -> balanced inflowment.
